

YIYUN “MALCOLM” HUANG

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville

915 Volunteer Blvd.

Dunford Hall, Knoxville, TN 37996

yhuang54@vols.utk.edu

EDUCATION

- 2016- PhD Candidate in Early American History, University of Tennessee-Knoxville
working title of dissertation: “‘Nothing but large potions of Tea could extinguish it’: Cultural Transfer and the Consumption of Chinese Tea in Early America.”
Passed Comprehensive Exams in September, 2018
- 2014-2015 MA in U.S. Studies: History and Politics, University College London
- 2013-2016 MA in English, Shanghai International Studies University
- 2009-2013 BA in English, Zhejiang Normal University

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2018- Graduate Teaching Assistant, History Department, University of Tennessee,
2018 Participator, Best Practices in Teaching Workshop, Graduate School, University of Tennessee
- 2017-2018 Graduate Research Assistant, History Department, University of Tennessee
- 2017-2018 Library Assistant, Research Collection, University of Tennessee Library

FELLOWSHIPS AND HONORS

- 2019 Frances E. Malamy Fellowship, Phillips Library, Peabody Essex Museum, Salem, MA.
- 2019 Paula Backscheider Archival Fellowship, American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies
- 2019 Summer Travel Grant, Humanities Center, University of Tennessee
- 2019 Travel Awards, Graduate Student Senate, University of Tennessee
- 2019 The Galen Broecker Fund for British Studies, History Department, University of Tennessee
- 2017-2020 Study-abroad Scholarship, China Scholarship Council (CSC), Ministry of Education, China
- 2013 Outstanding Graduate Awards, Zhejiang Normal University
- 2012 The National Scholarship, Ministry of Education, China

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS AND INVITED TALKS

- “Before the Empress of China and Grand Turk: 18th century transfer of tea culture between Qing-dynasty China and colonial North America,” Phillips Library, Peabody Essex Museum, August 16, 2019
- “Mapping Chinese Tea Culture in Eighteenth-Century America,” AAS-in-Asia 2019, Bangkok, Thailand, July 1-4, 2019 (as panel organizer).
- ““Panacea” or “Pernicious Drug”: The Seventeenth and Eighteenth-Century Europeans’ Knowledge-making of Chinese Tea as Materia Medica,”” Global Asias 5 Conference, Pennsylvania State University, April 5-7, 2019
- “Tracing Chinese Tea Culture in Eighteenth-Century America,” The Southeast World History Association Conference, Maryville College, November 2-3, 2018
- “Medical Knowledge of Chinese Tea in North America prior to 1784,” Asian Studies on the Pacific Coast Annual Conference, Washington State University, June 6-8, 2018

PUBLICATION

- Yiyun Huang, “An Analysis of Black Power Movement’s Source of Strength: Black Panther Party and its Community Organizing Efforts,” (in Chinese), Journal of Taizhou University (China), 2018(02): 49-56

BLOG WRITING

- ““The Future Wealth of America’: Old China Trade, American Merchants, and the Plan to Grow Tea in Antebellum South”” on Global Maritime History website, September 2019.

TEACHING

- | | | |
|------|----------|---|
| 2018 | HIUS 350 | Early America Unbound , Teaching Assistant to Dr. Chris Magra |
| 2019 | HIST 261 | World History to 1500 , Teaching Assistant to Dr. Allison Vacca |
| 2019 | HIEU 241 | Western Civilizations , Teaching Assistant to Dr. Matthew Gillis |

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATION

- AAS - Association for Asian Studies
- AHA - American Historical Association
- ASECS-American Society for Eighteenth Century Studies
- H-Asia
- H-Early America
- H-Food Studies
- H-Sci-Med-Tech
- H-SHEAR